Dear Valerie,

It was a pleasure for Mary and I to receive notices from you, besides because you got married recently.

With the devaluation of mexican peso, it has been imposible to travel nowadays, so it is difficult to assit to congress and meetings and to travel as tourists.

My father died last year, he was 96 years old.
We miss him very much.

I send you the answer of your letter of January 31st.
Please give our best wishes to Eleonor and Dick, and Emilio too.

It would be nice to get someday a postal card from one of the Pacific exotic island.

Con el cariño de siempre,

Ing. Julio Monges C.
